Huxley All-Weather Putting and Chipping Greens

Huxley All-Weather Putting and Chipping Greens are ideal for family enjoyment or for home practice by tour professionals and keen amateur golfers alike. They provide a superb all year round facility for fine-tuning your short game, as well as for home entertainment, without the maintenance requirements of natural turf.

A Huxley All-Weather Putting and Chipping Green can be situated in just about any location, indoors or outside to suit your specific requirements and space available. Huxley Golf have completed projects in over twenty different countries and, wherever you are, we will ensure that every installation is carried out to the same Huxley Golf exacting standards.

Huxley Golf have installed All-Weather Putting and Chipping Greens at the private homes of many of the world's top golfers including numerous Major Championship Winners and Ryder Cup Players. Huxley Greens are available in a wide variety of shapes and sizes and can incorporate contours, undulations and fringe surrounds as well as hole positions to suit you. Each green is specially designed and installed by trained members of the Huxley Golf team to suit the customer's individual requirements.

“ My Huxley Putting Green allows me to practise my putting and chipping undisturbed, and I can do this when it suits me, just by stepping out of the back door. Huxley Golf have the best product and I am delighted with my investment. My children love using it too!”

Søren Kjeldsen (European Tour Professional).

Huxley All-Weather Golf Greens and Golf Courses

Huxley All-Weather Golf Greens provide a first class, professional quality surface that is ideal for both short game practice and for low maintenance greens on a golf course. They will receive a full golf shot or chip realistically, while also providing a true ball roll for putts.

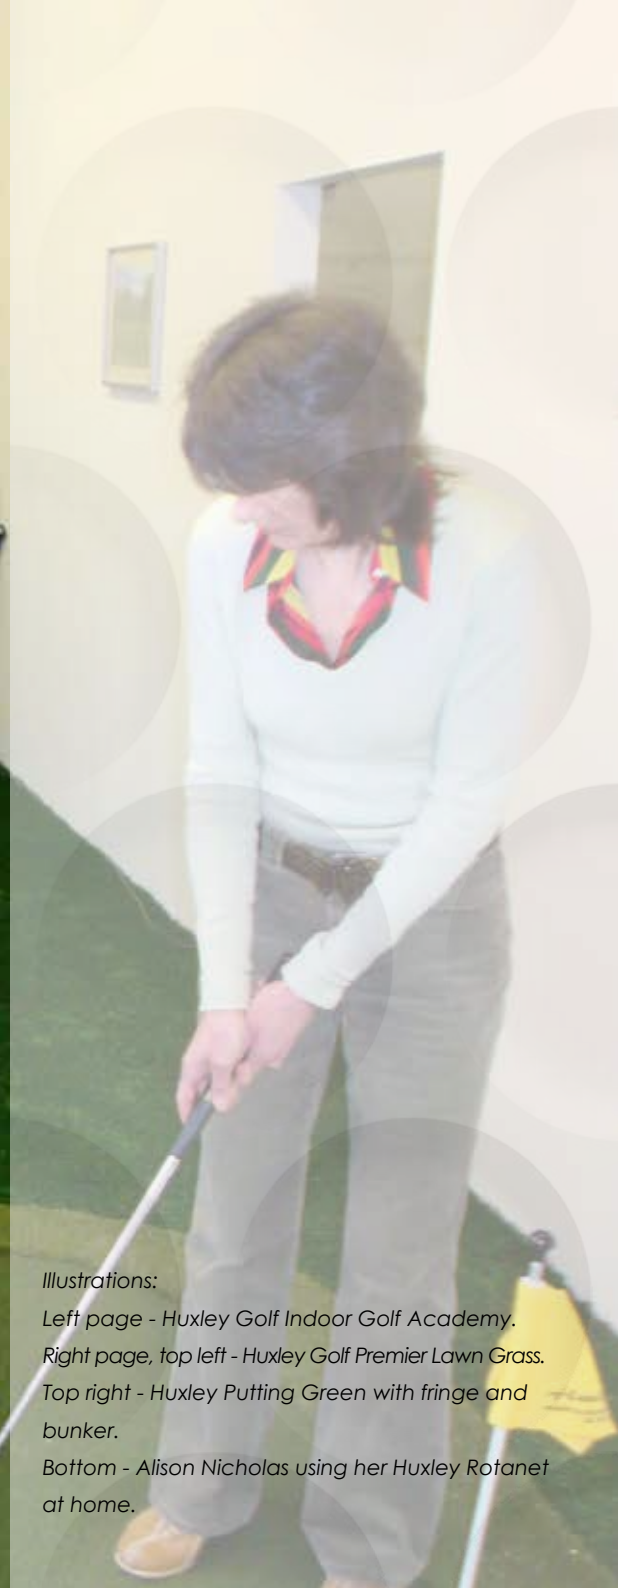

Requiring very little maintenance, the Huxley All-Weather Golf Green is ideal for keen amateur golfers and tour professionals to enjoy practice in the comfort of their own surroundings.

Huxley All-Weather Golf Greens and Tees combine to make a superb all year round practice and playing facility at home. Huxley Golf have been involved in the planning, design and installation of many short courses for customers to enjoy in their own back garden. Whether it's a single green with several tee positions or several greens to create a short course, Huxley Golf has the answer. We can also create other features such as bunkers and water features to complement your course and provide maximum enjoyment for family and friends.

“ I have been delighted with my Huxley Green at home, which is used regularly. It is great for serious practice and also fun for the family and friends.”

Sir Clive Woodward (Coach of the England 2003 Rugby World Cup Winning Team and Director of Elite Performance for the British Olympic Association)

Additional Quality Products from Huxley Golf

Huxley Golf offer a superb range of additional premier quality products to enhance your enjoyment of golf and leisure at home.

The Huxley Rotanet is the ultimate home practice net whether for use outside in your own garden or indoors (with the optional portable frame). When not in use, it can be quickly retracted to take up minimal space or removed for storage and, when you want to practise, it's easily set up ready for use in minutes. Choose one of the high quality Huxley Practice Mats for use with your Huxley Rotanet.

Huxley Premier Lawn Grass, will give you an attractive, low maintenance, enjoyable lawn all year round. Looking and feeling just like top quality close-mown turf, yet without the associated wear and maintenance, Huxley lawn turf is silent and comfortable to walk on and it looks superb whatever the weather.

Let Huxley Golf's experienced design service create your own golf facility at home, indoors or outside, and even including bunkers and water features if you want.

“ I can thoroughly recommend Huxley Golf products to golfers of all standards who want to improve their game. They have a superb range of training and practice aids. We use them regularly at my golf academy and I also have a Huxley Putting Green and Huxley Rotanet at home”

Alison Nicholas (Former U.S Women's Open Champion and Captain of the 2009 and 2011 European Solheim Cup Teams).
